Together again and so blessed for it! A heightened gratefulness for each other and all He gives us has been a precious and unexpected blessing of these past months of difficulty. We come together once again this week to praise Him and rejoice in all He's done for us. So glad you chose to join in the celebration!

So don't ever be afraid,
dearest friends!
Your loving Father
joyously gives you
His kingdom realm
with ALL its promises!

Luke 12L36 emphasis added

Please Pray...

- ☐ those whose loss and burdens only God can carry
- ☐ for those trusting for His divine healing
- ☐ for wide open hearts, as we seek His direction in reaching the next generation for Him
- ☐ for enough relationship so that we can respond fully with our gifts to one another's needs.
- ☐ for His help to consistently prepare and be ready for His new direction/transition
- ☐ for the three men and their families God has called to our church
- ☐ for the lost and disenfranchised, whom we all know and love

"Andy, I felt like you were talking about me this morning...especially your story about the 'ruggedly handsome chick magnet'."

Care Teams

After our initial meeting, we'd tabled the process of establishing Care Teams, because so many were gone due to illness and holiday events. Now we're hoping to get things moving again. Please pray about whether you're called to help in this important ministry. If you'd like to help or would like more info, plan on connecting for a short meeting on Sunday, immediately following church, in the office.

We have more and more children attending regularly and we're really hoping to provide a bit of security for the entire body, along with respite for our young parents. Please consider being part of this ministry, so we can provide care to many with the least impact to any one individual.

thought...

"Worry doesn't take away tomorrow's troubles,
it takes away today's peace."
