Welcome, especially to all our mother's this morning. We're happy and blessed you could all join us today and hope you know what a tremendous value we place on the things you do everyday for your family, as well as for our body. Thank you.

Mom
"She is clothed
with strength and dignity,
and she laughs
without fear of the future.
When she speaks,
her words are wise,
and she gives instructions
with kindness."
Psalm 31:25,26

Mother's Day
Celebrations of mothers and motherhood can be traced back to the ancient Greeks and Romans, who held festivals in honor of the mother goddesses Rhea and Cybele, but the clearest modern precedent for Mother's Day is the early Christian festival known as "Mothering Sunday."
Once a major tradition in the United Kingdom and parts of Europe, this celebration fell on the fourth Sunday in Lent and was originally seen as a time when the faithful would return to their "mother church"—the main church in the vicinity of their home—for a special service.
Over time the Mothering Sunday tradition shifted into a more secular holiday, and children would present their mothers with flowers and other tokens of appreciation. This custom eventually faded in popularity before merging with the American Mother's Day in the 1930s and 1940s.

Discussing Today

JUST A THOUGHT
"How does a Mom do it?
With prayer
With patience.
With deep, cleansing breaths.
With imagination.
With caffeine.
With all the help she can get!"

 Sharing Hands

Please Pray...

- ☐ Lord, build YOUR church
- ☐ for Keyton and Jessica Blocker, as they continue the difficult journey of navigating his diagnosis of Hodgkin's lymphoma
- ☐ for abiding persistence to possess the land He's entrusted to us
- ☐ for the continuing outreach of the Hope House
- ☐ for the lost and disenfranchised, whom we all know and love
- ☐ for enough relationship so that we can respond fully with our gifts to one another's needs.
