If Kingdom life teaches us anything, it's that His ways are very different from our ways. Love your enemy, forgive offense, 70 times 7 and here ➡ we see that the stone, the One, that most of us would have completely rejected, is actually the most critical of all. What else are we missing?

*Give us eyes to see, ears to hear and hearts to receive YOUR truth
this morning, Lord!*

"The very stone the masons rejected as flawed has turned out to be the most important capstone of the arch, holding up the very house of God."

Psalms 118:22

I tried to explain that he's going to be with Me forever, but he hasn't quite grasped it yet.

JUST A THOUGHT

"There is nothing a Christian needs to be more scrutinizing about than his confirmed habits and views.

He is too apt to take for granted the Divine approbation of them."
