JUST A THOUGHT

"When we are young, it's the illusion of perfection with which we fall in love. As we age, it's the humanness - the poignant stories of overcoming, the depthful vulnerability of aging, the struggles that grew us in spiritual stature, the way a soul shaped itself to accommodate its circumstances. With less energy to hold up our armor, we are revealed and, in the revealing, we call out to each other's hearts. Where before we saw wounds as weakness, they are now revealed as proof that God exists. Where we once saw imperfect scars, we now see evidence of a life fully lived."

~ Jeff Brown, from his book "Love it Forward".
